Shoot and Tell

Photographer Martin Schoeller has been capturing memorable moments for EW since 2000. His latest book, Portraits, includes shots of political leaders, business entrepreneurs, and yes, Hollywood celebrities. Here, a few of our favorites (we might be a little biased).

The photographer shot Cate Blanchett for a Babel cover story in only 10 minutes.

Schoeller photographed George Clooney and Brad Pitt for EW's Ocean's Thirteen cover. "They were having so much fun playing croquet and joking around with each other that it was almost hard to get them to focus on the photo shoot," he says.

Schoeller says he included this photo of Brokeback Mountain stars Jake Gyllenhaal and Heath Ledger because it so perfectly captured their easygoing friendship.
